Dear Borgward Friends,

This year we have chosen for Brasschaat, a little town near Antwerp.

Brasschaat has over 37.000 inhabitants and is well known for the relatively high number of fortunated Dutchmen that live in this area.

Brasschaat is the capital of van het judicial district Brasschaat and is part of the electoral district of Kapellen. In November 2006 , Brasschaat was awarded with the LivCom-Award 2006 , for being the most livable town in the world.
