OVERNIGHT

Local hotels are small in size and the rooms reserved for us may run out quickly: we therefore invite you to book as soon as possible in order not to run the risk of no longer finding availability. Having to find hospitality elsewhere will create organizational problems for the gathering of all the participants in one place, with a probable negative impact on the program of the event !!! Thank you.

Please book on the indicated website by specifying "Borgward Meeting" and pay directly for your overnight stays.
